Sir,

Sub:Motor Vehicles Department- Estt- Mass casual leave on 01.12.2009 and 19.06.2010 by the Executive and the Ministerial Staffs of the department- reg-

- Ref: 1.This Office letter of even No.dated.12.07.2011.
2. G.O(Rt) No.621/2011/Trans dated.29.12.2011
3. Letter No.IAU II/ sanction audit/2011-12/6 dated. 18.01.2012 of Accountant General, Kerala, Thiruvananthapuram.

As per reference 1st cited, it was requested to treat the mass casual leave availed by Executive and the Ministerial Staffs of the department on 01.12.2009 and 19.06.2010 respectively, as unauthorized absence and forfeit their salary and to forward the compliance report. Meanwhile Government have regularized the absence of 893 ministerial staffs on 19.06.2010 as eligible including casual leave , as per reference 2nd cited. (copy enclosed) .Therefore it is requested that the unauthorized absence of ministerial staffs shall be regularized by sanctioning eligible leave and in cases where the Salary had already been forfeited , steps may be taken to draw and disburse the same to the incumbent concerned.

The Salary of the Executive staffs have to be forfeited as already requested and the compliance report along with the list of Officers whose Salary have been forfeited shall be forwarded by return, without fail since a report in this regard is due to Accountant General, Kerala, Tvp

Yours faithfully
