Sir,

Sub:- Motor Vehicles Department – Surprise check conducted by the VACB at Motor Vehicle Check post, Cumbammettu – direction issued - reg

Ref:- Govt.Letter No.9346/C1/2015/Tran dated 06.08.2015

During the course of a surprise check conducted by VACB at the Motor Vehicle Check Post (Temporary) at Cumbammettu, it was understood that the officials working there are collecting money from the Drivers who carries Sabarimala Pilgrims from TamilNadu, Karnataka and Andhrapradesh etc. According to the VACB, this practice is not an isolated one and hence they had recommended to conduct frequent surprise checks by the superior officer of the Motor Vehicle Department at the check posts. The VACB had also pointed out that a Notice Board informing "the demand and acceptance of bribe is a crime" written in English, Malayalam, Tamil and Kannada has to be displayed at the check post.

Therefore all the Deputy Transport Commissioners/Regional Transport Officers are directed to conduct surprise check at the check post frequently so as to curb the practice of acceptance of bribe. Urgent steps ought to be taken to display a Notice Board with the inscription "the demand and acceptance of bribe is a crime" in English, Malayalam, Tamil and Kannada languages.

Yours faithfully,
Sd/-
Transport Commissioner
