Sir,

Sub: Motor Vehicles Department - Remittance of compounding fee collection Under Section 200 of Motor Vehicles Act 1988 - remittance under the head of account 0041-102-97 clarification - reg

Ref: 1. This office letter of even no. dated 14.12.2009
2. Letter no C20/9543/09/E from RTO, Ernakulam dated 16.01.2010

With reference to the above 2nd cited a clarification has been sought for by the Regional Transport Officer, Ernakulam, whether the compounding fee collection in office is also to be remitted under head of account 0041-102-97, in this connection, I am to inform you that prior to opening of new head of account 0041-102-97, all fees collected in Motor Vehicles Department offices were remitted under the head of account 0041-101-99. Since the inception of Kerala Road Safety Authority, whose source of revenue is the 50% of amount collected under compounding fee, the need for a separate head of account exclusively for compounding fee arose. Hence all the compounding fee collected whether in field or in office has to be remitted under the head of account 0041-102-97. This is for your information and necessary action.

Yours faithfully,
