dt: 1.10.2002.

C I R C U L A R NO. 27/2002.

Sub:- Reservation of fancy registration Number - auction
Instructions issued - reg. -

AS per Rule 95 of KMV Rules in the event of auctioning of fancy numbers the number has to be allotted to the highest bidder. But Regional Transport Officer (NS), Thiruvananthapuram has reported that a situation in which the applicants were reluctant to bid for any higher amount than the Reservation fee and requested to issue direction for disposal of the applications. The rules provide for auction in the case of two or more person reserving the same number. If the bidders do not participate in the auction; the only alternative is to allot the number to any person who will be successful in a lot to be taken. The other person or persons not participating in the auction will lose the reservation fee as already remitted by him or them.

All the concerned officers are directed to comply with the above instructions.

The receipt of the Circular should be acknowledged.
