Sir,
Sub: Motor Vehicles Department-Amendment in Rule 186 of the Kerala
Motor Vehicles Rules, 1989-Direction issuing of-Reg
Ref: G.O.(P) No.70/13/Transport dated 28-06-2013

Attention is invited to the above reference. As per Rule 186 of the Kerala Motor Vehicles Rules, 1989, the minimum amount which could be recovered from goods vehicle for overloading was ₹ 400/- and maximum amount was ₹ 2,000/-. But vide reference cited, a new clause "for overloading" has been added in item No.2 of the table in Rule 186 of the Kerala Motor Vehicles Rules, 1989. As per this Government notification the minimum amount which can be recovered from goods vehicle is ₹ 1,000 and maximum amount is ₹ 2,000 plus one thousand rupees per tonne of excess load. The said notification came into effect from 28-06-2013. All the officers are directed to implement the same without any fail and initiate action on check reports pending. It may also be noted that the balance amount as per the new rule shall be recovered if action was taken against goods vehicles for overloading as per Rule 186 on or after 28-06-2013. Copy of the notification is enclosed herewith.

Yours faithfully
