Sir

Sub- Mvs Dept-'Operation ABC'- irregularities detected- instruction issued-Reg.
Ref- Government letter No. 14599/C3/2012/Trans dated 22/6/2013.

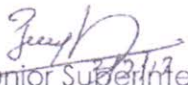

It has come to the notice that after driving test, connected application and records are usually kept by the Motor Vehicle Inspectors in all offices are not handed over to the officials of Regional Transport Offices for further process. In view of the above irregularity as per Government letter cited, have directed to discontinue the practice of keeping the files of driving test under the custody of Motor Vehicle Inspector for a long period without handing over the same to the officials in the RT Office. All Regional Transport Officers/ Joint Regional Transport Officers are directed to strictly adhere the Government instructions as mentioned above without fail. Any laxity in the matter will be viewed seriously and appropriate penal action will be initiated against the defaulted officials.

Yours faithfully
