The offices who have excess projectors should transfer their equipment to the corresponding offices. The receiving R.T.Officer should distribute the equipment to any of the Sub R.T.Offices among his jurisdiction according to the need and to report to this office about the distribution. The receiving officer should acknowledge the same, take stock of the equipment, verify whether it is in good condition and to forward the acceptance certificate to this office after having a successful demonstration of the product by the suppliers. R.T.Officer, Kottayam has been directed to distribute the projector received to Sub R.T.Office; Changanassery as requested has been received from that office in this regard.
