Form no. 6 is the form of driving licence. The description of vehicles licensed to drive is listed in the form. Some of the vehicles are transport and others are non transport. Hence the validity of T.V. (for 3 years) and NTV (20 yrs ^{or 5 yrs}) are provided separately on the form. But ~~the~~ both validities are attested by single signature. There is no validity for the badge as mentioned in the audit para. There is validity for the licence only which is authorise to drive T.V or NTV or both.

In the case of licence to drive a motor car (Lmv) the validity is for 20 yrs. After one year he can obtain a badge so that he is authorised to drive a taxi which is T.V. Then the validity to drive T.V. is to be filled up. (for 3 years). When the validity to drive T.V. expires but the validity to drive NTV is valid (eg:- for 6 months) he has to ~~renew~~ apply for renewal again after 6 months. It is public harassment. There is no separate fees prescribed for the renewal of T.V and NTV. Hence it is advisable to renew NTV (5 yrs) also while renewing T.V (for 3 yrs.) otherwise numerous problems will arise.
