Sir,

Sub: - Motor Vehicles Department -WP© 27011/12 of High Court filed by Centre for Consumer Education-judgement- reg.

- Ref:
1. Letter No. Q3/WP©27011/12 dated 11.06.2013 from Advocate General, Kerala
 2. This office letter of even number dated 31.07.2013, 5.9.2013, 5.10.2013 and 10.12.2013
 3. Lawyer notice dated 7/11/2013 and 15.12.2013 from Manayani Associates

In the judgement in WP© No. 27011/12 filed by before the Hon'ble High Court of Kerala against the unauthorised erection of hoardings, advertisement boards, the Hon'ble High Court has directed the Transport Commissioner and Road Safety Commissioner to remove such advertisement boards and hoardings in co-ordination with Local self Government Institutions. Hence you were directed to take all necessary steps to remove the hoardings and advertisement boards which are found to be a cause of occurrence of traffic blocks and accidents and found distractive to the drivers. You were also directed to invoke the provisions of the Kerala Road Safety Authority Act in consultation with the District Road Safety Councils. All Deputy Transport Commissioners vide reference 2nd cited, were directed to forward a compliance report in this regard in return. Except from DTC CZ II, no reply has been received so far. Hence you are once again directed to look the matter seriously and forward a compliance report without further delay.

Now vide reference 3rd cited, a lawyer notice was received in this office demanding the removal of the hoardings and flex boards in compliance with the judgements referred 1st above which was intimated to you vide this office letter of even number dated 10.12.2013. In this regard you are once again directed to take necessary action and forward an action taken report to this office. You are also directed to intimate the fact to the petitioner also.

Yours faithfully,
Sd/-
