Dated 13th November, 1985.

 Safe custody of Office Seal of Licensing Authorities to prevent misuse - instructions issued -

It has been revealed in an enquiry conducted in connection with the issue of Driving Licences and endorsement that the Licensing Authorities are not keeping their office seals in safe custody. This has enabled some unscrupulous elements to misuse the seals in issuing ^{fake} false licences.

All Licensing Authorities are directed to keep the office seals in safe custody to prevent any misuse in future. They are also directed to report before Police Authorities if any ^{fake} licences are detected. The contents of this circular may be brought to the notice of all Asst./Addl. Licensing Authorities and other concerned officers.

The receipt of this circular may be acknowledged by return.
